ORGANIZING & DE-CLUTTERING

We help you de-clutter your home or office and then create efficient systems to help you keep it organized just the way you want it.

Downsizing

We are particularly proud to offer our unique downsizing services to baby boomers, seniors and businesses.

Staging & Moving

Staging your home can maximize sales price and shorten time on the market. Also a well-planned move can assure minimal disruption, reduce stress, eliminate clutter, and let you begin a new life in a new home – whether moving across town or the country.

WHO WE HELP:

- We specialize in helping seniors make transitions in their life. Whether you are downsizing from a large home to a smaller, more manageable home or needing help in organizing your existing home – we can help.
- Empty Nesters who want to convert their space to meet their new lifestyle.
- Baby Boomers who want to simplify and downsize their life.
- Spouse or family members who need assistance after an injury, disability or loss of loved one.
- Those affected by ADHD - putting systems in place to support households.
- Homeowners needing to “stage” and de-clutter their home and prepare for a move.
- Professionals who are changing careers or offices. Home-office setups.
- Those who are simply ready for a change in their life.

With sensitivity, care, and skill they provided me with individual assistance that well exceeded my desired results. In the process they nurtured my home and life, with calm and ease.

THE PROCESS:

We assist our clients to identify changes they want to make and then create the plan of action and timeline in which to accomplish these goals.

PUTTING THE PLAN INTO ACTION:

- Organize your home or office including storage space, closets, attics, or garages.
- Sort, organize, label, and pack. Hire and oversee professional movers.
- Create a plan and draw layouts for furniture and art placements.
- Careful and safe distribution of family heirlooms.
- Brainstorm what to keep, what to give away, what to auction/donate, and to responsibly recycle.
- Oversee home redesigns, remodeling, repairs, or upgrades to your current or new space.
- Transform your space into a lovely, simplified, organized home or office in just days.

Over 25 years experience serving all generations

ADDITIONAL SERVICES:

- We offer Consulting Sessions for your local or long-distance transitions
- Emergency Preparations

We also provide assistance with:

- Elder care services
- Auction houses for the sale of fine possessions
- Consignment shops and second hand stores
- Remodeling Services: Working with knowledgeable, experienced, and honest craftsmen
- Home cleaning services
